

Yr 11 – Poetry and Conflict poetry anthology

Read	https://www.shmoop.com/study-guides/charge-of-light-brigade-poem/ https://www.shmoop.com/study-guides/ozymandias/ https://www.shmoop.com/study-guides/storm-on-the-island/ Read the articles that introduce some of the key poems in the anthology for the lit exam.
Watch	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zreLmzXklaE Watch the video summarising all the poems. There is further links for each poem in the playlist.
Revise	Tasks: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Have a go at planning an answer to one of these questions below:2. Write an introduction to this essay you have planned3. Create a list of comparisons between the poems4. Why do you think the collection of poetry was called 'power and conflict'? Is there a connection between these two words? Exam styled questions: How is conflicted shown in the two poems of your choice? How do the poems share ideas around nature in your poems of choice? How is power used in the poems of your choice?